Master of Laws

Introduction

The KDU Master of Laws offers an outstanding postgraduate degree programme for law graduates and Attorneys. It covers the subject areas of legal specialization which focus on contemporary legal issues in combination with the latest legal professional expertise and academic excellence.

The programme provides a broad education in Law and postgraduate legal research. It is designed for those with a personal or professional interest in Law and is suitable for study by both law graduates and Attorneys. The course would develop key postgraduate legal skills and knowledge with specialization in a specific area of Law. A limited number of students is admitted so as to facilitate effective interaction among all participants.

The teaching staff of the programme brings together the best legal minds in Sri Lanka which includes leading academics, practitioners and industry professionals with special expertise, as well as visiting international scholars. Students would benefit from the rich educational environment while intermingling with professionals from many backgrounds and industries, and building the specialized expertise and experience needed to gain a professional cutting edge. Lectures will be held on every other weekend at KDU and the rest of the learning is through assignments/independent learning carried out at the candidates' own convenience. The medium of instruction is English and all the lectures are webcast through the M-Learning platform of KDU.

Objectives

The breadth of the programme gives students an opportunity to harness their legal knowledge and skills, and enhance career prospects for the purpose of attaining their personal and professional goals. Further, it;

- a. Provides an advanced knowledge and understanding of the underpinnings of different fields of Law and the skills required in practice,
- b. Enhances perceptions on the international dimensions of the different fields of Law,
- c. Develops the capacity to understand, critically assess and provide practical solutions to the type of problems commonly encountered in the practice of Law,
- d. Inculcates knowledge, understanding and skills at postgraduate level deemed appropriate to careers involving International Law or areas for which it has relevance, and
- e. Provides the foundation for progression to PhD level study.

Intended Learning Outcomes and Expectations

The programme provides opportunities to develop and demonstrate knowledge and understanding, qualities, skills and other attributes as follows;

- a. Knowledge and understanding of the chosen specialty, augmented by current practice, scholarship and research.

- b. Critical analysis of the current issues and developments in the chosen area of specialty.
- c. Application of research findings to practical and hypothetical situations.
- d. Utilization of a range of techniques and research methodology.
- e. Undertaking critical analysis, evaluation and synthesis of novel and complex ideas.
- f. Making decisions in complex and challenging situations.
- g. Self-direction and originality in tackling and resolving complicated legal problems.

Programme Structure

Candidates are required to earn 60 credits including the credits allocated to the dissertation, in two years, to obtain the Master of Laws Degree, or complete the academic requirements including the mini dissertation of the first year to obtain the Postgraduate Diploma in Law. Any violation of rules and regulations stipulated by KDU on conduct and discipline leads to cancellation of your studentship.

The duration of the Master of Laws degree is four semesters (two academic years) and classes are conducted on every other weekend other than public holidays from 0830 hrs to 1730 hrs. The medium of instruction is English.

Course Delivery Plan

The programme includes eleven (11) mandatory subject modules and four (04) optional subject modules. A credit is defined as having 15 hours of interactive classroom sessions or 30 to 45 hours of practical and other time work, including assignments.

A take home assignment of 3000 words on a research question from all subject modules will be given.

Candidate is required to complete all 11 compulsory subject modules, the dissertation and 2 optional subject modules out of 4.

How to Apply

Legal officers of the Tri-services and Police should apply through their Service Commanders and the Inspector General of Police, respectively; and public and private sector personnel through their heads of departments. The application should be addressed to the Dean, Faculty of Graduate Studies. All applicants are required to pass an aptitude test conducted by KDU.

PART II

Programme Details

17. The duration of the Master's Degree Programme shall be of two (02) academic years. Each academic year is divided into two (02) semesters.

18. The lecturers of KDU and Universities, and eminent persons in the respective fields appointed by the Vice Chancellor on the recommendation of the Dean-FGS shall conduct the courses. The medium of instruction shall be in English.

19. The subject modules (Course Delivery Plan) for the Master of Laws programme is attached at the end of the By-Law.

20. The titles of the subject modules taught shall be as those set out in the course delivery plan at the end of the By-Law. The Curriculum Revision Board appointed by the Vice Chancellor has the power to amend the list of subject modules, the syllabi, and the number of credits allotted to each subject module and to revise subjects from time to time when required. The decision made by the Curriculum Revision Board should finally be approved by the Senate before implementation. Any changes will be announced before the commencement of each semester. A detailed syllabus of each subject module taught will be made available to the candidates.

21. The number of subject modules for each programme and credit weightages available in the first and second academic years are also shown in the course delivery plan. The candidates need to offer subject modules in the two (02) years with the stipulated criteria to complete the programme successfully. Further, the candidate has to submit a dissertation/research paper on a topic approved by KDU, the credit value of which is 15.

22. Any student, who failed or referred in subject module(s) at an end semester examination, is required to re-sit for the end semester examination for the particular subject module(s) at the corresponding semester of immediately following programme of the respective degree course.

Submission of Assessment Papers / Dissertations

23. The candidate needs to submit assignments, other assessment papers, etc; to the Dean FGS and obtain a receipt before the deadline given by the lecturer of the subject module. Under no circumstances shall the deadline given by the lecturer be extended. Assignments, Reports, Term papers, etc; should not be handed over to any person other than the Dean FGS who is the authorized person for this purpose. The Dean FGS will determine the final date of submission of the dissertation/research report. Two soft copies of the dissertation/research report should be provided. Selected dissertation paper/research report may be published in the KDU Web.

Postgraduate Diploma

24. A candidate may register for a Master's degree programme and withdraw from the programme to opt a Postgraduate Diploma (hereinafter referred to as PGD) in the programme after offering subject modules available in the first academic year, the credit sum of which is 30 and also he/she has to submit a project report of more than 5000 words on a given topic within one year. The credit weightage of the report is 5.

25. A person who has obtained PGD may rejoin as a candidate of the Master's degree programme within three (03) years from the date of awarding the original PGD certificate, subject to surrender of the PGD certificate to the Registrar at re-registration. Candidate who is awarded with the Master's degree will not be eligible to PGD certificate which is already surrendered. Only the 1st year will be exempted from the programme since the candidate has completed PGD.

PART III

Mode of Evaluation

26. The performance of each student at each subject module taught during each semester will be evaluated by means of continuous assessment and by an end-semester examination.
27. Without prejudice to the generality of the Rules and Regulations relating to Examinations, the lecturer may conduct any evaluation test.
28. The lecturer should assign marks as given below for the continuous assessment component and the end-semester examination component, and should announce this weightage at the commencement of his/her lecture series.

Components	Weightage %
Continuous Assessment (Presentations, Assignments, Quiz, Term Papers, Reports, etc.)	30 or 40
End-Semester Examination	70 or 60

29. Usually, the lecturers involved in teaching evaluate the candidates in respect of continuous assessment. In the case of the end-semester examination papers, there will be a setter and a moderator.
30. The performance of candidates at the end of each academic year is evaluated as per the table below to determine whether the candidate is qualified for the award of PGD or the Master's degree. Candidates who are awaiting the results of the first academic year are permitted to follow the lectures of the second year on a temporary basis until the results are finalized.

Range of Marks	Grade	Grade Point Value
90 – 100	A+	4.2
80 – 89	A	4.0
75 – 79	A-	3.7
70 – 74	B+	3.3
65 – 69	B	3.0
60 – 64	B-	2.7
55 – 59	C+	2.3
50 – 54	C	2.0
40 – 49	C-	1.7
30 – 39	D	1.0
Less than 30	E	0

31. The Grade Point Average (GPA) of each candidate is calculated using the Formula $GPA = \frac{\sum c_i g_i}{\sum c_i}$ where c_i is the number of credits and g_i is the grade point value obtained for the i^{th} subject module.
32. The minimum pass mark for each subject module shall be 50 per cent (Grade C). The marks for the entire subject module is the weighted sum of the marks obtained for the two components of the subject module. The grade point is determined as per the schedule given in para 31. It is compulsory that a candidate participates in both, the continuous assessment component and end-semester examination.

a. A candidate with marks as stated below is deemed to have failed the particular subject module entirely or partially;

(i) less than 40% for both components (D or E), or

(ii) less than 40% for one component and 40% or above for the other component, (*Ica or Ie), or

(iii) absent with a valid excuse for one component and obtained less than 40% for the other component, or

Ica - Incomplete Continuous Assessment

*Ie - Incomplete End Semester Examination

(iv) absent without a valid excuse for one component and obtained 40% or above for the other component.

33. Candidates need to obtain minimum marks of 40% for each component to obtain a C-, C or a better grade in addition to the overall marks required for each grade. For a D grade each component marks and overall marks should be 30% - 39%.

34. If a candidate fails (refer para 32) a subject module, he/she is required to sit for the next available examination. Candidates who have obtained 40% or more for the continuous assessment component ($\geq 40\%$), but obtained less than 40% ($< 40\%$) in the end-semester exam will sit only for the next available end-semester exam and vice a versa.

35. All examination answer scripts to be marked by an independent second examiner subsequent to the marking by the first examiner.

a. If the difference of marks is equal or less than 20% marks between first and second examiners, the average of the two to be considered.

b. In case of difference of more than 20% marks between the two examiners, the first and second examiners are to compromise for the disparity of the marks by negotiation and should bring it down to less than 20%.

c. Thereafter marks to be calculated according to the above Para a.

36. If a candidate fails an optional subject module he/she will be permitted only one opportunity to change that optional subject module, subject to pay additional lecture fees for the particular subject.

37. The BOE shall finalize the results of each end-semester examination and recommend for the confirmation of the BOM. Those who do not pass a subject module will be given an opportunity to appear for a repeat examination subject to payment of repeat examination fees.

38. If a candidate, who is registered for the Master's degree programme, obtains D or less in 80% or more subject modules in the first academic year, he/she will be discontinued from the Master's Degree programme.

Conditions for the award of the Postgraduate Diploma

39. The conditions for the award of PGD and Master of Laws Degree are as follows;
1. The Postgraduate Diploma in Law will be awarded to a candidate provided:
 - a. He / she has followed at least 50 percent of the lectures within the academic year and has attended more than 50 percent lectures in each subject module carrying two or more credits,
 - b. The Dean FGS should certify that the candidate has completed the course of studies leading to the examination by attending the required percentage of lectures, tutorial classes and other forms of instruction during the course,
 - c. He / she has not violated any Rules and Regulations stipulated by KDU on Conduct and Discipline, and
 - d. He / she has passed the PGD in Law examination as per para 42.a.
 2. The Master Degree in Laws is awarded to a candidate provided:
 - a. He / she has fulfilled the conditions for the award of PGD in Law,
 - b. He / she has followed at least 50 percent of the lectures within the academic year and has attended more than 50 percent lectures in each subject module carrying two or more credits,
 - c. The Dean FGS certifies that he/she has completed the course of studies leading to the examination by attending the required proportion of lectures, tutorial classes and other forms of instruction during the course,
 - d. He / she has not violated any Rules and Regulations stipulated by KDU on Conduct and Discipline, and
 - e. He / she has passed the Master Degree in Laws examination as per para 42.d.
40. All the rules and regulations relating to the examination procedures, offences and punishments of KDU, shall apply to the Master's degree Programme too.

PART IV
